The screenshot shows the ScienceDirect search results page for the term "modelling". The search results are filtered to show 6,164,519 results. The page includes a search bar, a list of search results, and a sidebar with filters. A red box highlights the "Export" button in the top navigation bar. A blue box highlights the "Purchase" button. A red box highlights the "Export" button in the search results list. A red box highlights the "Save to Mendeley" button in the export options menu. A blue box highlights the "Attached pdf" button in the export options menu. A blue arrow points from the "Attached pdf" button to the "Save to Mendeley" button. The search results list includes the following entries:
